PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

Marriage license has been granted R. D. Cordwell and Cynthia E. McNeil.

Workmen are engaged in putting steam heating apparatus in the handsome new cars of the Roanoke and Salem dummy railway. These cars will be running next week.

Mr. Edmund H. Donnelly, associate editor of the American Builder, of Cleveland, Ohio, will address the Artisan Club of Roanoke at their regular weekly meeting, Monday night at their hall.

Miss Mary B. Gooch, of Louisa county, arrived last evening, and is spending several weeks with her brother, Judge Gooch.

Seventy-eight deeds were filed for registration up to night-fall in the clerk's office yesterday.

President Woodrum, of the International Cigarette Machine Company, leaves to-morrow for Havana and the City of Mexico.

The Black system of electric street railways, which worked so well in dry weather, was tested in the rain yesterday, which did not interfere in any way with the workings or running of the car.

Miss Mary White, daughter of Rev. H. M. White, of Winchester, a niece of W. S. McManahan, of this city, died at Winchester yesterday morning. Miss White was well-known and greatly beloved in Roanoke, and but recently returned home from a visit here.

Joseph Harper, who cut William Reed Friday night, is still at large. He will probably make himself scarce in Roanoke for a while.

MAYOR'S COURT.

Mayor Evans disposed of the following cases in his court yesterday morning.

P. H. Hughes, leaving team unattended on the street; dismissed.

W. W. Kelly, jumping a moving train; cautioned and dismissed.

George Robinson, disorderly conduct; as George had been locked up all night the mayor considered him punished enough and dismissed him.

J. R. Bower, who created a commotion on Salem avenue Friday night, and then taught Officer Gee how to turn hand-springs in the air by kicking him over the railing of the mayor's office, was fined $5 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and $10 additional for assaulting Gee.

Neal Hannah, a negro tough, was fined $5 for striking a woman with a stone, $10 for carrying concealed weapons in the shape of a paper eraser sharpened on both sides into a wicked-looking dagger, and sent to jail for ten days pending an examination on the charge of stealing two cloaks from Mrs. E. A. Jones, on Salem avenue. When the latter charge is disposed of Officer Bower has another in waiting for him.

DEATH OF GEORGE KING.

His Death the Result of Injuries Received From a Fall.

George F. King, of New Castle, Pa., agent for the Lake Shore nursery, of Erie, Pa., died at an early hour yesterday morning from the effects of an injury received on the 19th ultimo by falling into an excavation on Salem avenue.

After falling into the hole he was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and carried to Mrs. Wilson's boarding house, where he received every care and attention which could have been shown him, but without avail.

His condition was greatly aggravated by the death of his youngest child, who died shortly after he received his injury. He was greatly attached to the child, and brooding over its death added to his enfeebled condition.

King leaves a widow and another child at his home in New Castle, Pa., whither his remains will be sent for interment.

Physicians Must Report.

Local physicians have been notified by Dr. Hodgson, secretary of the board of health, that they must strictly observe the regulations requiring them to promptly report all cases of contagious disease within their practice.

There is no need to buy a Baltimore Philadelphia or New York paper to find the news. By subscribing for THE TIMES you can have it served to you every morning at your breakfast table twelve hours in advance of the Northern papers.

WANTED—A good reliable boy who has had experience in feeding presses and understands something about them. Apply in person at once to HAMMOND'S Printing Works.
